

What's New from the Global Education Recovery Tracker?

Strategies to Mitigate Learning Loss

Percentage of Countries Deploying Various Strategies to Support In-Person Learning

Though many countries are not exclusively offering additional tutoring by teachers, this strategy is incorporated as part of a mixed-multiple* approach to mitigate learning loss. For a breakdown by region, check out the graphs page on the tracker.

Discover more at

<https://www.covideducationrecovery.global/>

Data displayed is as of 08/02/21 for 206 countries that the Global Education Recovery Tracker covers.

*Mixed- Multiple involves a combination of the following: changes in school year or school day, targeted remedial measures, or tutoring by teachers or NGOs.